

COOL COMPANY LTD.

ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION POLICY

Adopted on 26 March 2025

This anti-bribery and anti-corruption policy (the “Policy”) has been adopted by the board of directors (the “Board”) of Cool Company Ltd. (“CoolCo” or the “Company”) and applies to CoolCo and its wholly owned subsidiaries, collectively referred to as the “CoolCo Group”.

1. PURPOSE

The Board implemented this Policy to ensure CoolCo complies with all applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws and regulations, such as the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the UK Bribery Act, Bermuda Bribery Act, and any laws, domestic or foreign, prohibiting bribes or improper payments, gifts or inducements of any kind to or from any person, including officials in the private or public sector, customers and suppliers. To the extent that applicable laws or regulations have stricter requirements, they will overtake the requirements in this Policy.

All Covered Persons (defined below) are expected to conduct business in a legal and ethical manner at all times, regardless of any competitive pressures or pressures exerted by local custom in a particular region. CoolCo will not give, pay or promise anything of value to obtain, retain or direct business or to secure an improper advantage of any kind. CoolCo will strive to avoid even the perception of impropriety or conflict of interest. Further, it is prohibited to use any CoolCo funds or assets for any illegal, improper or unethical purpose. Violations of anti-corruption laws will jeopardize the CoolCo’s growth and reputation.

Any questions regarding the application of this Policy should be directed to the Chief Financial Officer, Head of Internal Audit and Risk and/or the General Counsel. Any issues requiring escalation may be directed to the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee.

2. APPLICATION

This Policy applies to all CoolCo Group directors, officers, employees and other personnel that CoolCo may determine should be subject to this Policy, such as contractors or consultants (“Covered Persons”), as well as any Third Party Representatives (defined below).

CoolCo and its management have the overall responsibility for the administration of this Policy, subject to oversight by the Audit and Risk Committee acting on behalf of the Board.

Third Party Representatives

CoolCo shall conduct a due diligence investigation before engaging any advisor, agent, broker, contractor, consultant, representative or business partners who, on CoolCo’s behalf, will or may be interacting with third parties including but not limited to government officials (“Third Party Representatives”).

Government Officials

A government official includes a wide variety of positions and roles, including:

- officers and employees of any local, municipal, provincial, state, federal or foreign government, of any department, agency or instrumentality of a government, or of any public international organization;
- any person acting in an official capacity for or on behalf of any of the above groups;
- officials or employees of a company wholly or partially owned by a government (for example, state owned gas companies);
- officers or employees of a public international organization, such as the United Nations or World Bank;
- any political party or party official;
- any candidate for political office; or
- an immediate family member (meaning spouse, dependent child, parent or household member) of any of the foregoing.

(Collectively referred to as “Government Officials”)

Prior to beginning any engagement with CoolCo, the Third Party Representative must (i) agree to follow or have policies implemented similar to the CoolCo Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and this Policy; (ii) submit to appropriate monitoring and audit procedures by or on behalf of CoolCo, at CoolCo’s discretion; (iii) agree that it shall not retain any sub-agent, sub-contractor or representative without CoolCo’s prior written consent; and (iv) acknowledge that such engagement may be terminated if there is a violation of the foregoing undertakings, representations and agreements.

CoolCo may determine regions or countries that pose higher risks of corruption and may impose more stringent requirements on Third Party Representatives operating out of or into such regions.

CoolCo’s management will administer the due diligence and approval process of Third Party Representatives, and the inclusion and implementation of appropriate safeguards in Third Party Representative agreements, such as compliance with this Policy and anti-corruption laws, anti-bribery and anti-corruption training, monitoring and audit procedures. As necessary, management will provide such materials or reports to the Audit and Risk Committee, as required in their role of providing oversight of the due diligence and approval process.

3. ANTI-BRIBERY

A bribe is typically anything of value (such as, but not limited to, cash, cash-equivalents, jobs or “consulting” relationships for the person or his or her family or friends, investment opportunities, entertainment or other gifts or courtesies) offered or given in an attempt to affect a person's actions or decisions in order to assist in obtaining or retaining business for, or with, or directing business to, any person or to gain or retain a business advantage. Such improper payments also result in reputational damage to CoolCo.

It is prohibited for Covered Persons and Third Party Representatives to bribe any person, either directly or indirectly.

Further, the CoolCo and any Covered Person and/or Third Party Representative breaching this policy may be liable for imprisonment and/or fines for any such improper payments.

4. FACILITATION PAYMENTS

Facilitation payments are sums paid to government officials to facilitate or expedite a routine government action (such as processing a visa, scheduling an inspection or securing civil services). Facilitation payments are not permitted under any circumstances and must be reported to the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee, Head of Internal Audit and Risk and the General Counsel as soon as possible after they are made. If the demand is made onboard or in respect of a vessel managed by CoolCo, it must be immediately reported to the vessel's operations department.

In the refusal to make such a payment is likely to result in a risk to your personal safety, security of freedom, this is extortion and not a facilitation payment. The payment may be made but must be reported to the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee, Head of Internal Audit and Risk and the General Counsel as soon as possible after they have been made.

It is acceptable to make payments to facilitate or expedite actions if such payments are publicly available and transparent (such as paying an additional fee to obtain an expedited permit if such fee is publicly posted and available to anyone wishing to pay it to obtain a permit in a shorter time frame). Such payments must be properly recorded in CoolCo's books and records as described in Section 8 below.

5. GIFTS, ENTERTAINMENT AND HOSPITALITY

Gifts, entertainment and hospitality should always be reasonable, made in good faith and in compliance with Company policies, including our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and this Policy.

It is permitted to pay certain travel and accommodations expenses for private-sector business guests visiting CoolCo Group's offices or vessels, or CoolCo-sponsored events as long as it is for legitimate business purposes and provided no friends or family members of the invitee are travelling at CoolCo's expense, no unreasonable side trips are planned, no per diem cash is provided and the expense is properly recorded in the CoolCo's books and records as described in Section 8 below.

The same rules would also apply, with the appropriate modifications, for a third party paying travel and accommodations expenses for Covered Persons and Third Party Representatives.

As a general rule, all Covered Persons and Third Party Representatives should not provide or accept gifts or hospitality to or from Government Officials.

Business decisions should never be influenced by improper payments, gifts, entertainment or hospitality. All gifts, entertainment and hospitality from strategic partners or potential strategic partners will be subject to a high level of scrutiny.

The form in Exhibit A should be completed by all Covered Persons either receiving or providing such gifts and entertainment in excess of US$500 per person, and returned to the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee and General Counsel for approval, with the Head of Internal Audit and Risk in copy.

6. SPONSORSHIP

CoolCo is proud to sponsor various community and other events. However, any sponsorship should always be reasonable, made in good faith without the expectation of anything in return or the intention of influencing the behaviour or decision-making of others, and in compliance with CoolCo policies, including the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and this Policy.

7. POLITICAL, COMMUNITY AND CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS

CoolCo does not make political contributions and does not permit political contributions to be made on its behalf. Individuals are permitted to participate in political activities or support any political parties of their own choosing, on their behalf and on their own time.

Community or charitable contributions to be made on CoolCo's behalf must be approved in advance by the Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer. It is not permitted to make such contributions other than in good faith without the expectation of anything in return or the intention of influencing the behaviour or decision-making of others, and in compliance with CoolCo's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and this Policy. All community or charitable contributions by or on behalf of CoolCo must be accounted for with supporting documentation, including a receipt or written acknowledgment of the donation from the recipient. CoolCo, Covered Persons and Third Party Representatives are prohibited from making contributions to any charity owned or controlled by government or public officials.

8. BOOKS, RECORDS & EXPENSES

CoolCo's books, records and accounts shall be kept accurately and in reasonable detail so that they fairly reflect all transactions and dispositions of assets.

Expenses must be properly classified and recorded in all cases, and detailed and accurate accounting records must be kept for all transactions, including cash and bank account records. It is prohibited to mischaracterize or omit any Company-related expenses in CoolCo's record keeping. It is not permitted to create any undisclosed or undeclared accounts for any purpose. False or artificial expense reports or accounting entries are not permitted for any reason.

Personal or third party funds may not be used to accomplish what is otherwise prohibited by Company policy or by law.

9. TRAINING

All Covered Persons shall undergo periodic training concerning the requirements of this Policy.

10. REPORTING VIOLATIONS

Upon knowledge or suspicion of a violation of this Policy, Covered Persons and Third Party Representatives are expected to immediately report the violation or suspected violation to the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee and the Head of Internal Audit and Risk. Alternatively, the Covered Person or Third Party Representative may use the Speak Up hotline should they wish to remain anonymous.

The Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee and the Head of Internal Audit and Risk are responsible for conducting or delegating the conduct of investigations of each Ethics Report, and will ensure all investigations are handled independently and objectively.

In cases where an individual reports a suspected violation of this Policy in good faith, CoolCo will keep its discussions and actions confidential in compliance with applicable law and any rules or requirements adopted by securities regulatory authorities and any stock exchange upon which the Company's securities are listed.

Each Covered Person is required to cooperate fully with any investigation and should not investigate on their own as they may risk compromising the integrity of a formal investigation. See the Speak Up Policy for more detail.

No Retaliation

In no circumstances will there be any Reprisals by the Company against any person who has made an Ethics Report in good faith. “Reprisals” include termination, dismissal, demotion, discipline, retaliation or any other action which has an adverse effect on the person who has filed an Ethics Report. The Company shall also not take or encourage any actions that would prevent any person from making an Ethics Report. Persons who engage in any such prohibited conduct may be subject to discipline and termination of employment with the Company.

Retaliation against anyone for reporting or participating in good faith in any investigation of any possible violations of this Policy is strictly prohibited. Any retaliation by Covered Persons and Third Party Representatives should be reported as described above. See the Speak Up Policy for more detail.

11. CONSEQUENCES FOR VIOLATIONS

Any violation of the Policy, including fraudulent reports, by Covered Persons or Third Party Representatives may result in disciplinary action including termination of employment for cause or termination of service and, if warranted, legal proceedings. Violations include violation of the Policy, violation of applicable laws, rules or regulations, deliberate failure to promptly report a violation or withhold relevant information concerning a violation, refusal to cooperate in the investigation of a known or suspected violation without valid legal reason or taking action against anyone who reports a violation or breach of any of the above.

Violations of this Policy may also violate applicable law, which may cause CoolCo to incur consequences and liabilities, but which may also have additional consequences for violators personally, such as penalties and fines (which will not be paid by CoolCo) or imprisonment.

The Board may, from time to time, permit departures from the terms hereof, either prospectively or retrospectively, and no provision contained herein is intended to give rise to civil liability to shareholders, competitors, employees or other persons, or to any other liability whatsoever. For the avoidance of doubt, any waiver of this Policy for CoolCo directors and executive officers may be made only by the Board and must be publicly disclosed, along with the reasons for the waiver, in accordance with applicable stock exchange rules.

12. OVERSIGHT

Management is responsible for:

- Implementing and administering this Policy.
- Training and educating Covered Persons about this Policy.
- Performing periodic corruption risk assessments.
- Monitoring the effectiveness of, and compliance with, this Policy.

- Reporting on this Policy periodically to the Audit and Risk Committee.
- If necessary, updating this Policy to reflect developments and ensure compliance with changing regulatory requirements.

Management and the Audit and Risk Committee play a pivotal role in overseeing and implementing this Policy. Regular reviews and accountability mechanisms are integral to CoolCo's commitment to responsible business conduct and ethics.

Any material updates to this Policy that are proposed by Management must be reviewed and approved by the Audit and Risk Committee at their next regularly scheduled meeting and prior to approval from the Board.
